Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Select Committee: Appointed to Inquire Into the Present Condition of the Civil Service The Committee appointed to enquire into the present condition of the Civil Service, and the method of nominating and examining candidates for appointment with a view to ascertaining whether better moans cannot be adopted for securing the appointment of properly qualified persons, and the general efficiency of the Service, with power to send for persons, papers and records, and to report their, observations on the subject referred to them, together with the minutes of evidence taken before them, by leave to report. Your Committee regret that, owing to the unusual delay in bringing down the return to an address of the House for statistics of the Civil Service, they have not been able to consider and report upon those statistics. They have, however, orally examined several of the Deputy Ministers of the different departments and other gentlemen of high standing in the service of the Dominion, and the Deputy Minister of Education for the Province of Ontario. Some of these gentlemen also submitted written memoranda on the subject referred to the Committee. To all these witnesses the Committee are indebted for much valuable information given with unvarying readiness and courtesy. Their evidence is submitted in the appendix to this report. That evidence and the finding of the Committee are to be understood as referring to a lengthened experience under different Governments. The Committee have also considered as fully as time as would allow the system in force in the Civil Service of Great Britain and that of the Colony of Victoria Australia, and several suggestions made by members of...
