Meanwhile Studios, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Meanwhile Studios 2008 New/ ReviewHide Your Life Away takes place in a world of lousy jobs, food, and junk culture, and out of this unpromising material Carol Little has fashioned (as I see it) a work about commitment, and how it can offer a certain amount of salvation from that world. Read it. It is diverting, informative and artful. Thanks Carol. --Lorne Elliott, Writer / Comedian Little produces phenomenal work with excruciating attention to nuance, detail, character development and thematic tones in a way that makes the arduous nature of writing look painless and easy. --Suzanne Marsden, Writer / Designer What PEI needs after a hundred years of Anne. Carol Little is PEI's female Douglas Coupland -- Shayli Vere, Artist / Entrepreneur Product DescriptionThirty-two-year-old Jason Mahoney is a commitment-phobic grocery store clerk who finds himself at an inevitable crossroads. He is confused about his path in life, and is hiding from a potential romantic relation. He can't understand what cashier Debra Springer could possibly see in a lazy, unkempt, stock boy like him, but she wants him. Bad. And she wants the whole deal: marriage and kids. Between Debra's offers of unprotected sex and a late night roofing contract with his friend Random Michaels, it doesn't seem like Jason will get to do the only thing he really cares about this weekend: watching his new Star Trek DVD. Hide Your Life Away is a satirical, food, weekend romp that might just end up with a trip down the aisle.
