CHAPTER X 1899-1900 SOUTH AFRICA The Prince started for South Africa on October 6. Just before he left Buckingham Palace, for the last time as it proved, he wrote to the Queen: -- I must apologise for not having written and thanked you for your kind letter and enclosure before, but I have not had very much time as we have been packing and sorting out things hard all day. I start from here at 11.30 in a special train from Waterloo with some other officers. Major Martin is going to Southampton with me. I am glad to say they have allowed me to take my soldier servant with me, to his great delight. I fear I must end, as I must put in some of my last things. With best love to both yourself and Aunt Beatrice. His soldier servant, of whom...
