Excerpt: . . . miles back from the city, has been emparked and makes an elongated park, unusually beautiful and diversified, for a number of miles. Wade Park, opposite the buildings of Adelbert College and Case School of Applied Science is one of the jewels set along this chain of boulevards and parkways. Opportunities for healthful outdoor recreation that visitors may seek are practically unlimited. Among these may be mentioned yachting, boating, fishing, bathing in the lake, golf on several fine courses, tennis, American League baseball games, light harness horse racing, opera at the garden theaters, land excursions to lake shore parks and to amusement resorts of which there are a dozen or more within two hours ride by trolley, and lake excursions to Put-in-Bay and Kelleys Island, Cedar Point and Lakeside. Either coming or going, visitors will find an easy and gratifying addition to the week of meetings, in a visit to Americas unutterably grand manifestation of Nature, Niagara Falls. Even a special trip can be made most comfortably. At the Falls, almost every point of interest may be reached by the Belt Line, an electric line of cars running at frequent intervals, going as far as Queenston, Canada, and Lewiston, U. S. , at the latter place making connections with the Toronto boat, if desired. One may return to Cleveland by the night boat from Buffalo or by rail. Frequent excursions by land or by water at greatly reduced rates are given during the warm weather...
