From the beginning of the world the patriarchs have handed down the precept, that we must not make images and similitudes, and that we must not worship Shin-Kwei for neither can images and similitudes protect, nor Shin-Kwei afford us aid. The patriarch, thinking upon Heaven, the pure and ethereal Being who dwells on high, the most honorable and without compare, --that Divine Providence who, without speaking, causes the four seasons to revolve and the myriad of things to grow; and looking at the budding spring, the growth of summer, the in 1) In the commentary on this tablet, when words and phrases that appear in the preceding tablet are repeated, I frequently refrain purposely from commenting a second time. (See Biulia, October, 1894). This tablet deals mainly with Jewish history and the externals of religion. 2) i. e. the Jewish temple at...
