Excerpt: .all executions thereon and all bills of costs shall issue accordingly. Sec. 2. Be it enacted. That from and after the first day of January, One thousand eight hundred, all accounts shall be kept, and contracts made where money is stipulated for, in dollars and cents, or such parts thereof as the nature of the case may require; and all accounts kept or contracts entered into, where money is stipulated for, other than is by this act directed, shall be void and not recoverable by law. By an act passed October 23, 1799, the second section of the foregoing act was suspended until the next stated General Assembly. At the next general assembly, November 10, 1801, this second section was again suspended until the next stated General Assembly. At the next succeeding general assembly, October 25, 1803, the following act was passed: Chap. 60. An Act to repeal part italics mine of the second section of an Act entitled An Act respecting dollars and cents, contracts and the manner of keeping accounts, passed January the fifth, 1799. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That so much of the second section of the above recited Act that requires all accounts kept or contracts entered into, where money is stipulated for, other than are by said Act directed, shall be void and not recoverable by law, is hereby repealed, any law to the contrary notwithstanding, except, as respects accounts...
