Genl J. G. Caldwell, Pres t;, Together With the Report and Finding of the Court; Printed for Private Circulation and Future Ref After enduring, for nearly eight months, the horrors of a Southern prison, I found myself, almost on the very morning of my enfranchisement, (with a heart overflowing with joy, and sincerely thankful to that Providence which had so mercifully protected me from the ills and dangers of my incarceration,) suddenly stripped of my happiness, and my liberty again restricted by the action of my own Government - which, for three years, I had manfully striven to uphold. On the very point of returning to my family, I was arrested by an order of the Secretary of War, and directed to confine myself to the limits of Willard s hotel. Conscious of no crime, I cheerfully yielded to the orders of my superior officer - confidently believing that a...
